What is an In Step Select?

Selects are the face of In Step. They represent our dance school at various events, performances and promotions throughout the year. This group will receive dance training which is focused on bringing out individual qualities in each dancer by working on performance based routines. There will be no technique training in this class. It is specifically routines for performances so this class must be in addition to current classes and not instead of.

Selects will be made up of a variety of ages and abilities. What we are looking for in applicants is character, personality, enthusiasm, performance skills, commitment, good attitude and great work ethic.

It is important that you, (the parent) understands what you are signing up for before you allow your child to audition. Please carefully consider the following

- In Step staff choose the new Selects and their decision is final. We will not tolerate complaints from parents or children regarding our professional decision.
- A high level of commitment is expected from our Selects so before applying, please understand that your child must have a high level of attendance and give a good reason in advance for not attending class.
- Select uniform must be worn for every single Select class and hair must be tried up.
- You must be happy to allow your child to participate in external events/trips which may take up time on the weekends. This must be a high priority for you and your child.
- There will sometimes be things to pay for such as costumes, trips and workshops
- There may be events which Selects are expected to attend, contribute to and help out at which sometimes means sacrificing other things.
- There may be extra rehearsal times outwith their normal class times, usually on the weekend which Selects must be available for. No rehearsal- no performance. These come at no extra charge.
- Select parents are expected to communicate and respond to all In Step staff info within the whatsapp group in a timely manner.

We want to seek as many opportunities as possible for our Selects which may cost money and may require giving up time so please consider this carefully before applying.
